< A special framed citation was presented to the Grote family in memory of Bishop Royal Grote who sadly passed away last November. It was lovely to see Ellen (Bishop Roy's wife) at the General Council. She was the first to greet Bishop Paul when he arrived at the hotel. I miss Bishop Roy so much, he was an inspiration to us all and the brains behind the many initiatives within the Reformed Episcopal Church.

SHALOM

'My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.'
Exodus 33:14

The Hebrew word for peace is shalom. And apart from God it will always remain a pipe dream, a philosophical fantasy, or a tantalising fish that is just beyond your bait and hook. Marriages go awry and fall apart because we look to an imperfect mate to give us the perfect peace we're searching for, and we discover they can't. The story's told of a woman at a cocktail party who was trying her best to look happy. Noticing the gargantuan sparkling rock....

Anthony van der Meer Confirmation
We were blessed last Sunday to have the confirmation service for Tony who lives in Wimbledon. Tony is pictured here with his wife, Sally and their two children Alastair and Isaiah. He is also in training for the ministry in the FCE with the Revd James Paice at St Luke's Church. Please continue to pray for him, his family and James Paice.

.....on her finger, a guest exclaimed, 'Wow! What a beautiful stone!' She replied, 'Thank you. It's the Callahan diamond.' The onlooker said, 'I wish I had one!' The woman replied, 'No, you don't.' 'Why not?' he asked. 'Because it comes with the Callahan curse,' she replied. 'The Callahan curse - what's that?' asked the questioner. She sighed and said, 'Mr Callahan! Perfect peace can only come from a perfect peace-giver, and the only one who meets that qualification is God. Peace isn't the absence of problems; it's the presence of God in the midst of your problems. What's more, nobody ever finds peace by looking for it. Peace isn't something you find; it finds you when you surrender your life to the One who said, 'My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.' Note the words 'My Presence'. Only God's presence can bring peace. The assurance of God's love, God's help, and God's presence is what takes the stress out of living. Are you longing for peace today? When you surrender your life to Christ, you'll 'experience...peace...far more wonderful than the human mind can understand' (Philippians 4:7)
